

Athens, 12 /12/2025
Protocol No.: 3490

Subject: "Participation with a stand in the 11th Olive Oil & Olive Festival 2026"

Dear Sirs,

With this letter we would like to inform you about the holding of the 11th Olive Oil and Olive Festival, which will be held on March 20, 21 and 22, 2026, at the Agia Exhibition Center, in the Regional Unit of Chania, in Crete.

The largest exhibition in Greece for Olive Oil & Table Olives is being held for the eleventh time. It is the most important institution of Olive Growing in Greece. Within the framework of the 11th Olive Oil & Olive Festival 2026, the 8th Greek Extra Virgin Olive Oil Competition and the 6th Table Olive Competition will also be held.

The Festival has become the most important institution in the olive growing sector, while participation has exceeded 180,000 visitors in the ten previous events. The exhibition area covers 5,500 square meters while over 1,000 exhibitors have participated throughout the duration of the Olive Oil & Olive Festivals to date.

Parallel to the Festival, the MEDITERRANEAN LOCAL AGENTA, the OLIVE OIL FORUM, presenting Greek Olive Oil varieties and the OLIVE OIL GASTRONOMY FORUM – Olive Oil Gastronomy are taking place. In the same space, the AGRICULTURAL MACHINERY & EQUIPMENT EXHIBITION is taking place with machinery, equipment & supplies for Olive Oil and Olives and agricultural land.

The Festival will be visited by thousands of olive mills, olive producers, agronomists, cooperatives, producer groups, visitors from all over Greece as well as business missions from Greece and abroad with the aim of concluding trade agreements.

Presentations on national TV stations, radio, magazines, social media and foreign media have highlighted the exhibition as the Leader of the category.
